

Illinois Association of Area Agencies on Aging

FY 2022 I4A Factsheet

(Source: Illinois Department on Aging FY22 NAPIS Report)

The Illinois 13 Area Agencies on Aging served an estimated 406,924 unduplicated persons during FY22. Since the 1970s, each Area Agency on Aging has helped to build a network of aging services at the local level, incorporating the preferences of local participants.

Aging services assist older adults, their caregivers, grandparents raising grandchildren, people with disabilities, and veterans. The Area Agencies continued the initiative to reduce social isolation among older adults and their caregivers during 2022.

The Aging Network continues to provide direct assistance and support to older adults navigating the vaccination process. Area Agencies on Aging and Care Coordination Units provided 1,089 units of home health services to provide in-home vaccinations to 739 persons.

551 Provider Agencies

Area Agencies on Aging collaborate with community providers to ensure older adults and their caregivers have access to home and community-based services.
